Dear Sir/Madam,

Emergence of technology based enterprises and technology driven entrepreneurs is the need of the day, especially when the globalized world boasts of disappearing boundaries of world markets. To convert business ideas in to reality and to have more and more high tech and high end projects, there is a need to orient scientists and technologists of research laboratories and other R & D institutions to entrepreneurship.

With the above imperatives at hand Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDII) [promoted by IDBI, IFCI, ICICI and State Bank of India (SBI)] is organizing a specialized national training programme on Entrepreneurship Development & Management for Women Scientists & Technologists working in Government sector from 10th – 21st February, 2020 at its campus located at Ahmedabad. Programme is fully sponsored (except to & fro travel cost) by the Ministry of Science & Technology, Govt. of India, New Delhi hence no fees will be charged.

Intake capacity for the programme is only 25 and the candidates will be selected on first-come-first-served basis. The brochure will give you further details about the program. You are requested to please nominate eligible scientist/technologist/professor from your organization. Please note that duly filled-in nomination form must reach us on or before 27/01/2020.
